Practical Workshop on the Amended Specialised B-BBEE Codes of Good Practice

For all government departments, public entities, higher education institutions and non-profit organisations

27, 28 and 30 March 2017
Presented by Brigitte Brun and Maxi-Lee Machado

“All spheres of government, public entities and organs of state must report on their compliance with broad-based black economic empowerment in their audited annual financial statements and annual reports required under the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999).” Section 13G(1) of Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act No. 53 of 2003

It is compulsory for all Public Entities and Organs of State to report their B-BBEE status to the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Commission within 30 days of finalisation of their annual financial statements. Failure to do so results in non-compliance with the law.

Join two of South Africa’s leading B-BBEE specialists, Brigitte Brun and Maxi-Lee Machado, for a one-day practical workshop on the application of the Amended Specialised Codes of Good Practice. This valuable workshop will assist you in proactively developing transformation strategies in line with Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment rules and regulations in order to remain compliant.

Topics covered

• Unpacking the Specialised Amended Codes – Element by element:
  - Management Control
  - Skills Development
  - Enterprise and Supplier Development (including Preferential Procurement)
  - Socio-Economic Development
• Learning to calculate your score – practical examples of all the formulae in the Codes
